STORY OF THE RECENT IN THE THREE BOATS... WADING TO LAND—DISCOVERY OF LIEUTENANT DE KLOON'S LOST RECORDS.

PARIS, February 2.—The following important dispatch was received direct this morning from Lieutenant Danenhof, at St. Petersburg.

Our three boats left Scamoway Island on morning of September 13th, bound for Berlin, ninety-five miles distant. We got clear of the ice at noon. There was then a heavy sea from the northeast, and the boats dispersed. During the night the captain's boat, which was loaded with provisions, was lost.

Three other boats were abandoned two miles from the beach, and our party waded and reached the deserted village of Sagnap. We reached the deserted village of Sagnap. We reached the deserted village of Sagnap.

WASHINGTON, February 3.—Senator Teller, from the Committee on Pensions, to-day reported favorably a bill, which will pass Congress at this session and become a law, giving Mrs. Garfield, Mrs. James K. Polk, and Mrs. John Tyler pensions of $5,000 a year each from the 10th of September, 1881—the day on which President Garfield died. The bill provides that Mrs. John Tyler shall be paid $5,000 in full liquidation of the pension she now receives. In this connection it is painful to have to chronicle the fact that the body-servant of James K. Polk, who has been for years a faithful employe in the House stationery, was removed yesterday by the Republicans to make a place for one of their inopportune office-seekers from Pennsylvania.

GENERAL MAHONE TO-DAY.—The Committee on Agriculture, reported House bill appropriating $5,000 to pay the expenses of transporting from Atlanta to Washington articles donated the United States Government by exhibitors. The bill passed without opposition. The Senate also passed the bill appropriating $15,000 for the purchase of pure vaccine matter, to be sold at cost to the people. This will pass the House at an early day. I gave the provisions of the bill the other day.

FORFEITED LANDS TO BE APPLIED TO EDUCATION.—Senator George, of Mississippi, to-day introduced a bill to enforce the forfeiture to the United States of lands heretofore granted to railroad corporations, and to apply the same to education. It provides for proceeding against all persons now occupying these forfeited lands as if they were trespassers on the public lands of the United States, and sets apart as an educational fund the net proceeds of the sales of said lands. The fund thus procured is to be divided among the States, &c., in such manner as may be provided by law, and until this is done it is to be invested in bonds of the United States.

COMMITTEE MATTERS IN CONGRESS.—The House Committee on Foreign Affairs to-day agreed upon a report in the case of the brig Armstrong. This has been before Congress a great many years, and was made famous by Daniel Webster's great speech on it. The House Committee on Banking and Currency had a meeting to-day, and agreed to vote next Tuesday on Mr. Crapo's bill to extend the charters of the national banks. The Senate Committee on Territories heard the Dakota delegation. They are much stirred up by the New York Herald's article, which calls the movement for the admission of Dakota a conspiracy in favor of another northern borough. There are a good many Federal office-holders in the delegation.

PRIVATE-BILL DAY IN THE HOUSE.—It was private-bill day in the House, but there was a lively fight over the Philadelphia and Reading railroad bill. This company when last pressed issued labor certificates, and asks to be relieved of the Federal tax on them. The amount involved is nearly $450,000. Judge Kelly was the chief supporter of the bill, and Messrs. Hammond, of Georgia, and Springer, of Illinois; Tucker, of Virginia; McLean, of Maryland, and others opposed it. The speech of the Georgia member was a splendid legal argument.

THE PASSAGE OF THE SHEPHERD REFUNDING BILL.—The Senate to-day, after voting down Senator Morgan's amendment forbidding the charters of all national banks that give notice that they mean to withdraw their bonds from the Treasury and fail to do it, passed the bill—aye, 88; noes, 18. Among those voting in the negative were the following Democrats: Bayard, Coke, Fair, Garland, Groome, Hampton, Johnston, Pugh, Saulsbury, Slater, Vest, and Voorhees. Senator Johnston would have voted for the bill with the Plumb amendment, limiting the surplus in the Treasury to one hundred millions. The defeat of this and the provision that the 3 per cent. bonds are to remain outstanding until all other bonds bearing a higher rate of interest are redeemed make the bill, in his judgment, more objectionable than the present arrangement. There are now nearly two hundred millions in the Treasury, and he wanted half of it to be used right away to pay off a portion of the national debt. Senator Plumb, in course of the debate to-day, said that the national debt, which has been unwisely and wickedly increased, is a stumbling-block in the way of our progress, and he believed that this debate has made the people more nearly unanimous than ever before to pay it off as rapidly as possible.

SENATOR WINDOM DEFENDS HIS POLICY.—Senator Windom declared his measure better for the Government than the 3 per cent. bill voted by Mr. Hayes. He said that in connection with it two other bills were to have been passed—on appropriating one-fourth per cent. to pay the expense of funding, and the other abolishing the tax on bank deposits and checks. These, he contended, would have cost per annum, in the aggregate, five and a half millions more per annum than the 3 per cent. arrangement. Mr. Plumb, in reply, said while he approved what the Senator said Secretary of the Treasury did, he was sorry to see him weaken his position by such argument. The fact was these bills had nothing to do with the 3 per cent. bill. They were independent measures, standing each on its own merits.

THE PROVISIONS OF THE BILL.—The bill as passed by the Senate and sent to the House provides for the issue of $200,000,000 of 3 per cent. bonds, with no definite time fixed for their redemption. The national banks are not compelled to take them, as required by the Vest or Carlisle amendment. The bonds are to range from $50 to $10,000 inclusive. The Hawley amendment adopted to-day requires national banks proposing to retire their circulation and withdrawn their bonds from the Treasury to give thirty days' notice. It further provides that all the national banks together shall not even then withdraw more than $5,000,000. An advocate of the bill said to me to-night that people now holding bonds, and who are unwilling to lend the Government money at 3 per cent., will put their funds in improvements and business enterprises.

PERSONAL NEWS ITEMS.—Senator Johnston to-day presented papers in the case of T. W. Tansell, of Prince William, and had them referred to the Committee on Foreign Relations. The claimant was engaged on the commission to run a boundary line between the United States and Mexico some years before the war. Mr. Scott Carrington was at the Capitol to-day. Senators Windom and Ingalls to-day made personal explanations in regard to their heated debate yesterday, and disavowed any intention of being personally offensive. As they explained, however, they got a little apart again. Chaney Black (son of Judge Black), the New York Journalist, was at the House to-day. The President will give a Cabinet dinner to-morrow. The French President has, by decree, confirmed the appointment of Alexander Porter Morse as assistant counsel for the French nation before the Joint Commission. Alfonso Taft will be nominated next week as Minister to Germany. John C. New as Minister to Russia, and Pitkin, of Louisiana, as Minister to Mexico. Mrs. Senator Cameron is ill in New York, and her husband is here. General Phil. Sheridan is here. E. P. Dandridge, of Winchester, is in the city.

BRIEF NEWS ITEMS.—The Government receipts to-day were: Customs, $722,422; internal revenue, $461,664. The court-room was crowded to-day with people anxious to hear the argument for a new trial in the Guiteau case. The Police Court has adjourned the straw-bond cases until Tuesday. Cabell, one of the accused, was a steamboat-man on the western rivers before the war, and resided in Illinois.

THE FISHERIES QUESTION.—WASHINGTON, February 3.—The Joint resolution which the Committee on Foreign Affairs to-day directed to be reported to the House for printing and recommendation in regard to the treaty of Washington, requests the President of the United States to give notice to Great Britain of said resolution in article 33 of the treaty of 1871, for the termination of the provisions of said treaty contained in articles 18 to 25 inclusive, and relating to the fisheries, and also to institute negotiations with Great Britain by which the termination of said treaty is effected, and the fisheries and other rights and privileges formerly enjoyed by them.

Forty-seventh Congress—First Session.—WASHINGTON, February 3, 1882. SENATE.—Senator Mahone, from the Committee on Agriculture, reported, with amendment, House bill appropriating $5,000 for packing, transporting, and arranging agricultural products, and memorializing the President to the Agricultural Department by the exhibitors at the Atlanta Exposition. The amendment includes also the expenses voluntarily incurred by the exhibitors in transporting the articles to Washington. After an explanation by Mr. Mahone, the bill was passed. Mr. Teller, from the Committee on Pensions, reported an original bill, as a substitute for one on the subject, granting to Lucretia B. Garfield, Sarah Childress Polk, and Julia Garfield Taylor, widows of ex-presidents, a life-pension of $5,000 each per year from September 10, 1881, to the date of their deaths. The bill was passed.

Mr. Hoar reported from the Committee on Privileges and Elections Senate bill fixing the day for the meeting of the electors of the President and Vice-President, providing for and regulating the counting of the votes for President and Vice-President, and the decision of questions arising thereon. He said the bill was identical with the one reported by Mr. Edmunds from the Judiciary Committee and passed by the Senate in 1878. The bill was passed.

Mr. Hale asked for the printing of the bill at length in the Record. So ordered. On motion of Mr. Logan, Senate bill for the distribution of the proceeds of the sale of the pure vaccine virus to the people was taken up by unanimous consent. The committee's amendments were adopted and the bill passed.

The Senate, at 1:15 P. M., resumed the consideration of the 3 per cent. bond bill, and Mr. Van Dusen completed his speech. The pending amendment of Mr. Hawley, limiting withdrawals of bank circulation under the 4th section of the act of 1874 to five millions per month, and requiring thirty days' previous notice thereof, was then adopted.

No further amendments being offered, the vote was taken upon the final passage of the bill, and it was passed—aye, 88; noes, 18. The vote in detail is as follows: AYES.—Messrs. Aldrich, Anthony, Beck, Blair, Call, Camden, Cameron, of Wisconsin, Cockrell, of Missouri, Davidson, of North Carolina, Davis, of Virginia, Dawes, Fair, Ferry, George, Groome, Harrison, of Illinois,
